FAVORITES JOINED AT LAUREL COURSE

Yankee Notions Only Public Choice to Land-Light Arms Wins Jumping Race.

By GEORGE B. MORRIS.

Laurel, Md., Oct. 4.—Racing at Laurel again attracted a good-sized crowd for a midweek program of seven well-lit events, from which there were no scratches, and favorites received a setback in every race, with the exception of the fifth, in which Yankee Notions was returned the winner.

Today the first event over the brush was a given, and a 100 addition to the ranks of the jumpers was shown in Light Arms, an imported son of Labrador, whose reputation had preceded his appearance as being one of the best jumpers in training, and the way that he won his maiden performance stamps him as a dangerous entrant from now on. Tom Horn made the pace for the first mile and a half, but succumbed to the rush of the winner and New Haven. Sun King was installed a hot favorite, but just did not get to be third, while King Simon came a cropper on the back stretch and he with Tom Horn pulled up very lame. The time of 3:42.5 lowers the old track mark of 4:00 for the distance.

The first upset of the day came in the first race when Daddy Long Legs, from the Herz string, made a phenomenal stretch run, and beat out the Belmont favorite, Dear Trap, who finished second, and finished in the sixth.

In a field of 10 starters the third race, a selling affair for 2-year-olds, brought out another beaten favorite, when Killa, very much fancied by the talent, was beaten home by Glory Belle. Many who knew "Yankee Notions" fancy for a track that had a soft, greasy, made her the selection in the fifth event, which he won in a handy manner, getting off well at the rise of the barrier, he made every jump of the six furlongs from, and finished in the good time of 1:15. Haynes never left the issue in doubt, in spite of the exhortations of the crowd to Fair Helen as she struggled a length back trying to get up. King Ford finished third, after a short burst of speed.

Again the Bedwell-Taplin combination were returned victorious in the sixth race, when Borax, ally ridden by this little master of the pleskin, beat the barrier a sufficient distance to run from the outside position to take the lead in the sixteenth and be in front by two lengths, which lead he increased to five going up the back stretch, and won, eased up a length and a half to spare.

It happened to be the nearest to a dead heat was the first of the last race when Success and Little Nearer ran like a team for the last fifty yards, and only the judges and the numbers installed could determine who had won. In this instance it was a clear case of Ball striking out by failure, by the time the winner was up on Little Nearer, Taplin had Maxine's Choice running away and led into the stretch, but appeared to collapse in the last sixteenth. Sea Beach also ran close up to the leader, but failed to stay. Success was the best priced winner of the day, paying $3.50 for a $2 investment.

Goldcrest Boy, running in the colors of I. M. Hedrick, was returned the winner of the fourth race, but the victory was a hollow one from the standpoint of the purse, as he was beaten by a horse who was up on Little Nearer, Taplin had Maxine's Choice running away and led into the stretch, but appeared to collapse in the last sixteenth. Sea Beach also ran close up to the leader, but failed to stay. Success was the best priced winner of the day, paying $3.50 for a $2 investment.
